

PRESS RELEASE

UKRAINE NEW AIBI MEMBER

Brussels 25 September 2013 – AIBI is very pleased to announce a new full member association. The national association of Bakery and Confectionary of Ukraine have joined AIBI since September 2013.

This association is a merger of national and regional unions of enterprises of bakery industry and Ukrainian universities in the area of food and bakery technology.

The future collaboration and cooperation between Ukrainian and European plant bakers and the knowledge exchange and best practice will be of great interest for both parts and enhance further actions of AIBI.

Mr Volodymyr Mysyk - President of Ukrainian Bakery association and Member of the Ukrainian Parliament emphasises: "AIBI's experience is of great value for us. We are interested in the European way of bakers work management".

George Mavromaras welcomes warmly Ukraine Bakery association: "We are excited that the Ukrainian Association joined AIBI. We look forward to working together and to share valuable experience about the Ukrainian and other European markets. This is already the basis for a successful relationship!"
